

1. O God, thy sol - diers' crown and guard, and their ex -
 2. Right val - iant - ly they kept the faith, and glo - ri -
 3. Look down up - on us from a - bove, up - lift our
 4. On this the mar - tyrs' tri - umph day, let ev - ery
 5. O Christ, most lov - ing King, to thee with God the

ceed - ing great re - ward, from bonds of e - vil set us fied thee un - to death; for thee their blood they dared to hearts, O God of love, and as our hymns to thee we voice its trib - ute pay to those who count - ed all things Fa - ther, glo - ry be, and glo - ry to the Ho - ly

free, who sing thy mar - tyrs' vic - to - ry.
 pour, and thence have joy for ev - er - more.
 raise, ac - cept thy peo - ple's prayer and praise.
 loss for love of him who bore the Cross.
 Ghost, from men and from the an - gel - host. A - men.

Text: Deus tuorum militum, Evening Office Hymn for Martyrs Ambrosian, circa 6th c.

tr. John Mason Neale (1818-66)

Tune: Deus Tuorum Militum, Grenoble Antiphoner, 1752

LM